

The requirement to have written approvals on file to allow sending of faxes will be an unfair burden on all businesses.

A prior business relationship, as well as verbal approval, should serve as prior consent.